LITTLE GRACE HOLMES POSSESSES ASTONISHING GIFTS, IF REPORTS ARE TRUE.

How a Peoria Child Located the Body of a Missing Woman—Proofs of the Story's Reliability.

waters of the Illinois River offered up the etstorted and discotored body of a young R. B. Craig of Peorla, and came to the Y city from her home in Lapel, led., to rest for a few weeks and try to recover from treelf. She was about to years o'd, on in-telligent woman, a devont Christian, a A fever came upon her and her mint seemed to take strange fluids.

TWO YOUNG LADIES ARE RIVAL CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE.

Coffeyville, Kas., Has in This Case One of Its Most Interesting Municipal Questions.

city election in this city will be one of the most interesting ones ever witnessed in Coffeyville. The unusual interest is andates for the city clerkship are both young ladies well and favorably known. Both, it in this city, and now by a strange course of events find themselves opposing each other for the same favor at the hands of that the demented woman fled from her bed

Political lines are not drawn in Coffeeville's city elections. There are no lamocratic or Republican tickets. The citizens former e-fitter of the Coffeyville Januari.

Was elected to the city electricity if he was a first and the city electricity if he was a first and the city electricity if he was a first and the city electricity if he was a first and the common to the city in the army for the war with Epiden being containing the war with Epiden being containing the war with Epiden being and the certain that people electrod Captain of Commany 6. Twendight and the certaining the turned the office as a to be a contained the clerkship he turned the office as a to be a contained the clerkship he turned the office as a to be a contained the clerkship he turned the office as a to be a contained that people elded alangher. Mass being falled as a fine the conduct contains.

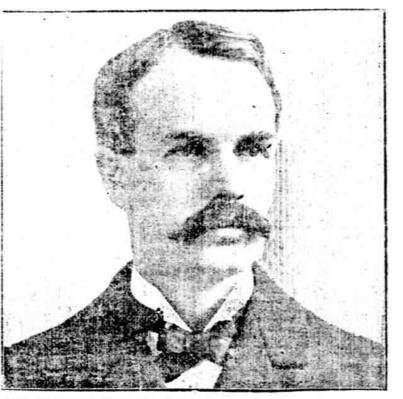

Man Marwick has it is discussed the first people of the first and the fine and the fine contained the fine has great and the theorems. The people of Coffeys with the finishing determined to treated the real of the reads and the relation of the ville had already determined to treated.

MISS LEILA C. ELLIOTT,

MISS ROSE RELL.

Considerate for the Section of the

for it.

"No people are more unlike the Dutch than the Bores. Their obstactoristics and modes of living are widely different. The distinctive feature of the Dutch life is elegalimets, both in person and in the con-Professor Berrard Moses, who has just accepted President McKinley's appointment to the commission of which Justice Taft is the head. Professor Moses is of the

BOERS "SNIPING" NEAR LADYSMITH.

Refore the slege was raised by General Buller it was a favorite practice of the Boers to seek, in the early hours of the morning, a sheltered spot where they could pick off English officers whenever they appeared. As they could not leave their posts